

Dancing for Summer Stages!

at Rialto Restaurant + Bar Charles Hotel, Cambridge

Sunday, June 14 6:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Celebrity friends of Summer Stages Dance are putting on their dancing shoes to make a difference...

What could be more exciting than Boston's premiere artists, dancers, actresses and some special friends coming together to foxtrot, cha-cha and salsa for the benefit of Summer Stages! The dancers are a distinguished group from arts institutions that range from the Boston Ballet to American Repertory Theater and include, among many luminaries, the very chef who will create a wonderful meal following the ballroom exhibition, none other than Jody Adams doing a tango!

DANCERS

Professional ballroom dancers from the renowned Studio 665 will be partnered with:

Jody Adams

chef and owner of Rialto Restaurant

Vanessa Kerry

daughter of Senator John Kerry

Karen MacDonald

leading actress at American Repertory Theater

Larissa Ponomarenko and Viktor Plotnikov

current and former principal dancers with Boston Ballet

Marilyn Showstack

philanthropist and Summer Stages supporter

Amy Spencer

co-founder and director of Summer Stages Dance

Roman Spzond

Anusara yoga guru

And cabaret tunes will be sung by Summer Stages' master of ceremonies, David Parker and The Bang Group's Jeffrey Kazin

TICKETS: $250/person,

Including the performance complemented by a special three course menu plus two wine pairings created by famed chef Jody Adams.

Proceeds will benefit Summer Stages' innovative training and performance programs.

For tickets and information, call
